Meeting was presided over jointly by Coms. Subhash Lamba, President AISGEF and Tapas Bose, Working President, Confederation. Com. R. N. Parashar explained the core issues and stressed the need of joint struggle to put pressure on govt. for settlement of the demands. Com. A. SreeKumar also elaborately spoken on the issues and endorsed the proposal of Joint struggle on Common Charter of Demands.

All leaders participated in the discussion and endorsed the need of joint struggle on common demands.

After detailed discussion, it was decided to put forth the following issues before the Govt. of India/Concerned authorities for immediate settlement.

1. Scrap NPS and Roll back to OPS.
2. Regularize all contractual/out sourced/daily waged employees. Fill up all the vacancies in Central/State Government/PSUs urgently.
3. Stop privatisation and corporatisation of PSUs.
4. Constitute the 8th Central Pay Commission.
5. Release all DA/DR including Confiscated arrears.
6. Remove all riders and restrictions on Compassionate employment.
7. Ensure democratic trade union rights.

If the issues are left unnoticed by the concerned authorities even beyond 30th October 2022, the concerned struggle will be organized jointly.

1. National Convention at Talkatora Stadium, New Delhi on 8th December 2022.

All COCs – 100 each

All Chief executives of the concerned organisations should issue circulars and distribute quota to each circle and unit and ensure participation.

World Federation of Trade Unions – TUI & PS – Directive Committee meeting in India

The Directive Committee meeting of WFTU- TUI & PS is scheduled to Be held at Hotel Rajhans, Surajkund, Faridabad (Haryana) on 9th & 10th November-2022.

About 20 members from Foreign Countries will participate in meeting.

From India Com. A. Sreekumar, Secretary General, AISGEF (Dy. Secretary General – WFTU – TUS & PS), R. N. Parashar, Secretary General, Confederation (Directive Committee Member) and one comrade from state employees Confederation will take part in the meeting.

Detail information will be given later.

Financial Position

Financial Position of Confederation is very poor. Two above mentioned programme will incur heavy expenditure and Confederation has to give it's share. We have requested several times to remit due quota to confederation only very few constituent organization's and state COCs have remitted quota in the last three years. All constituents and state COCs are requested to remit due quota as early as possible by cheque/DD or by Direct Deposit in below mentioned Bank account.
